

Thomas C. Gricks, III, class of 1977, earned a Bachelor of Science Degree from Carnegie-Mellon University in 1981 and a Juris Doctor Degree from Duquesne University in 1987.

Mr. Gricks is currently a partner in the Litigation Services Department at the Schnader Harrison Segal & Lewis Law Firm in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. He has a broad range of experience in general commercial litigation matters, with a particular emphasis on environmental and construction law.

Mr. Gricks has spoken and written internationally on the Oil Pollution Act, and the impact of Oil Pollution Act regulations on natural resource damages. He has also lectured frequently on the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation and Liability Act.

Mr. Gricks has been admitted to practice before a number of courts, including the U.S. Supreme Court, the Pennsylvania Supreme Court, the United States District Courts for the Middle & Eastern Districts of Pennsylvania and the District of Colorado, and the United States Courts of Appeals for the Third, Eighth, and the Tenth Circuits.